Friday 27th May 2022

Dear Families of Year 11,

As we come to the end of this half term, I wanted to express how impressed I have been by the level of focus and the general application the boys have demonstrated towards the first two weeks of their GCSE examinations. The half-term break will provide some much-needed respite from examinations and also an opportunity to implement a structured revision programme; however, it is important that students get the correct balance between work and rest in order to be fully prepared for the remainder of their examinations after the half term break.

As you will have seen from your son's examination timetable, the frequency of examinations increases significantly after the half term break. In order for us to best support your son during this period we have decided that all Year 11 students will be on study leave from Monday 6th June 2022.

This means that today, Friday 27th May, will be their last full school day.

After half term we will be running subject specific exam masterclasses. These masterclasses have been scheduled to correspond with each exam. Students are expected to attend the masterclasses in preparation for their exams. Please see below for further details of the masterclass scheduling:

Expectations relating to Masterclasses

- Students should only arrive at school for the masterclass going directly to their normal classroom. Full school uniform must be worn at all times during the masterclasses and the exams. This includes wearing school shoes and the school blazer.
- Students are expected to show exemplary behaviour at all times when in school. If they do not behave appropriately during a masterclass they will be asked to leave.
- On the completion of each masterclass students will be escorted off the site by their teachers to continue their revision at home.
- In some cases, a student may not be able to attend a masterclass due to an exam however we will ensure that all work from the masterclass is posted onto google classroom so they can catch up.
- Outside of the masterclasses or exams students are not expected to be on the school site.

We also are running a small revision room during the day. This will provide a supervised classroom for any student that finds revision difficult on their own. Students will be provided with access to laptops, however, students must bring their own revision materials that cannot be accessed digitally.

Finally, we will be holding a Year 11 End of School celebration BBQ on Friday 24th June 2022 at 4pm on the roof terrace. We hope to see you all, students and parents, at this BBQ to commemorate their time at London Nautical School.

It has been a pleasure to work with the year group throughout their time at LNS. They have overcome the additional challenges and pressures with resilience and positivity, and we wish them every success in the remainder of their exams and look forward to celebrating with them in the summer.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. M Schofield
Headteacher
