Dear families,

I hope this letter finds you well at the end of this incredibly busy five weeks. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support and engagement with the school. It has been great to welcome families into school for face-to-face Parents Evenings and we look forward to welcoming all remaining year groups in the coming months. A special mention must go to our Year 11 students who started the term with an intense period of Pre-Public Exams resulting in some very positive results. The information gained from these assessments is essential to their future success and will undoubtedly provide the perfect platform in preparation for a successful examination series. As always, the half-term break presents an opportunity for staff and students to reconnect with themselves, friends and families whilst ensuring that we are ready for the term ahead. This letter contains a number of important pieces of information for your attention:

Academisation

Thank you to all families that responded to our questionnaire and attended our Parental Engagement meeting. For all those families in attendance, I hope you found the event helpful and provided you with information about The City of London Academies Trust and the huge potential this presents our school community. I will keep you all apprised of events including dates for the start of the formal consultation period at the beginning of next term.
