World Book Day is on Thursday March 4th!

World Book Day vouchers have arrived!

The good news is that some of our year 7s have already got their vouchers, the even better news is that the vouchers are at school and ready for all students to collect when they return to school, week beginning March 8th.

How to get your WBD voucher

The vouchers will be delivered to classrooms during tutor-time. Please let your tutor know or send an email to Mrs. Suter if you do not receive one. They are valid until March 28th.

You can use your voucher in the following ways:

- ❖ Exchange it for a specially published WBD book
- ❖ Use it to reduce the cost of a book (by £1) that you would like to buy at a bookshop.

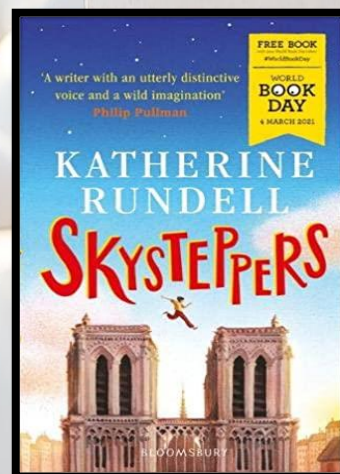

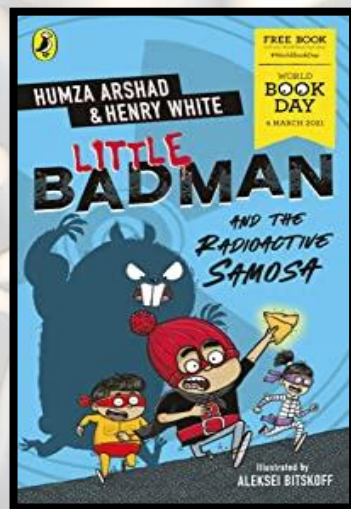

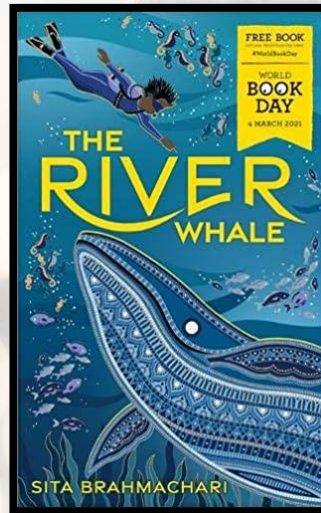

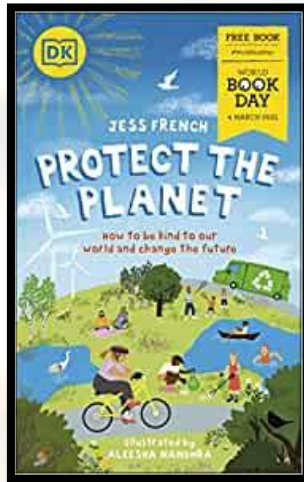

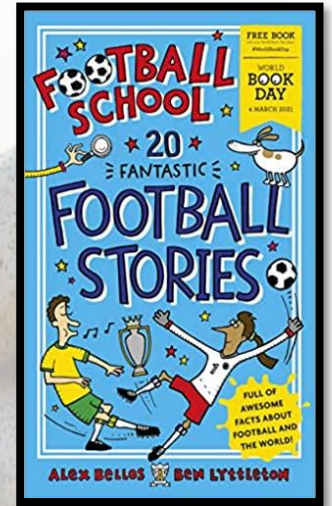

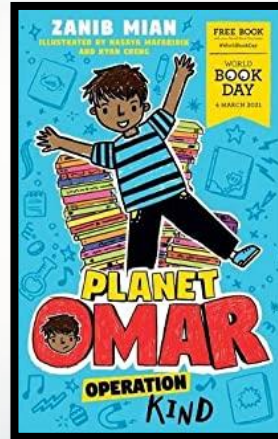

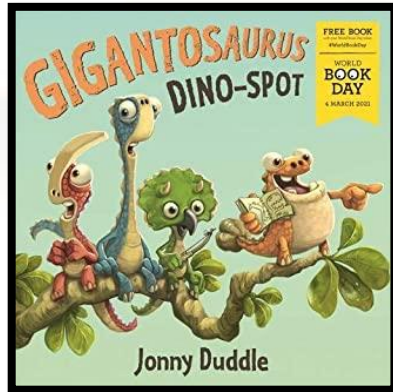

Please note: Booksellers will only accept one voucher in exchange for one book!

Spring Term 2021

March is a special month during the school library year – we get to celebrate World Book Day, which takes place on March 4th this year and we also get to focus on science-fiction during British Science Week, which takes place on 5th – 14th March.

Author spotlight – Octavia Butler

Octavia Butler was an American science-fiction writer. She is best known for writing stories for older teens and adults. She has won numerous awards, including the Hugo and Nebula Science-fiction awards.

My favourite Science-fiction character

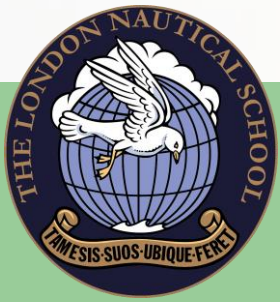

Doctor Who
The Doctor is:
Adventurous
Humorous
Scientific

By Jake – year 7

Why do you like the stories?
I like the adventure and teleporting to different places. I also like to watch the Doctor on T.V.
