

History

Curriculum Intent	Through the study of the history of Britain and the wider world, students will learn to relate to the past, enjoying and valuing history. They will develop a historical consciousness, making connections between the past and the present, and shaping perspectives on the future. Through understanding interactions between the past and the present, students are enabled to feel a sense of personal connection to the topics studied. Students' historical skills including critical thinking, using evidence, and chronological understanding are developed incrementally through a pursuit of a variety of enquiry questions. Students will become expert at expressing their developing historical understanding through increasingly sophisticated communication, using subject specific vocabulary with fluency.
