

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

The Black Flamingo
by Dean Atta

A stunning coming of age story about the power of embracing your uniqueness and showing your true colours.

It is about being free...

Give this a try if you liked One by Sarah Crossan and Poet X by Elizabeth Acevedo

Suitable for older readers

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

Patron Saints Of Nothing

by Randy Ribay

When Jay hears of his cousin's death everything changes. He travels to the Philippines, hoping to find the truth behind the incident – will Jay get any answers to his questions?

Suitable for older readers

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

On The Come Up
by Angie Thomas

Bri wants to be the greatest rapper of all time. Her father was an underground rap legend, so she has a lot to prove.

When her Mother unexpectedly loses her job food banks, bills and homelessness are on the horizon...

Bri no longer just wants to make it – she has to make it!

This book is the follow-up to The Hate U Give

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

Nowhere on Earth by Nick Lake

Emily is on the run. She doesn't get on with her parents and is always in trouble at school.

She finds a little boy named Aiden wandering the woods and realises that she needs to help him find his way home – getting home is no easy matter, especially when Emily finds out that Aiden isn't from Earth...

Book 5

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

WINNER!
Judges' choice

Lark by Anthony McGowan

Nicky and Kenny's mother is coming to visit and it's the first time that they will have seen her in years.

They're not sure if they really want to see her. They decide to take a trek across the moors to take their minds off things and find themselves in a dangerous situation. There might even be a chance that they might not make it home alive...

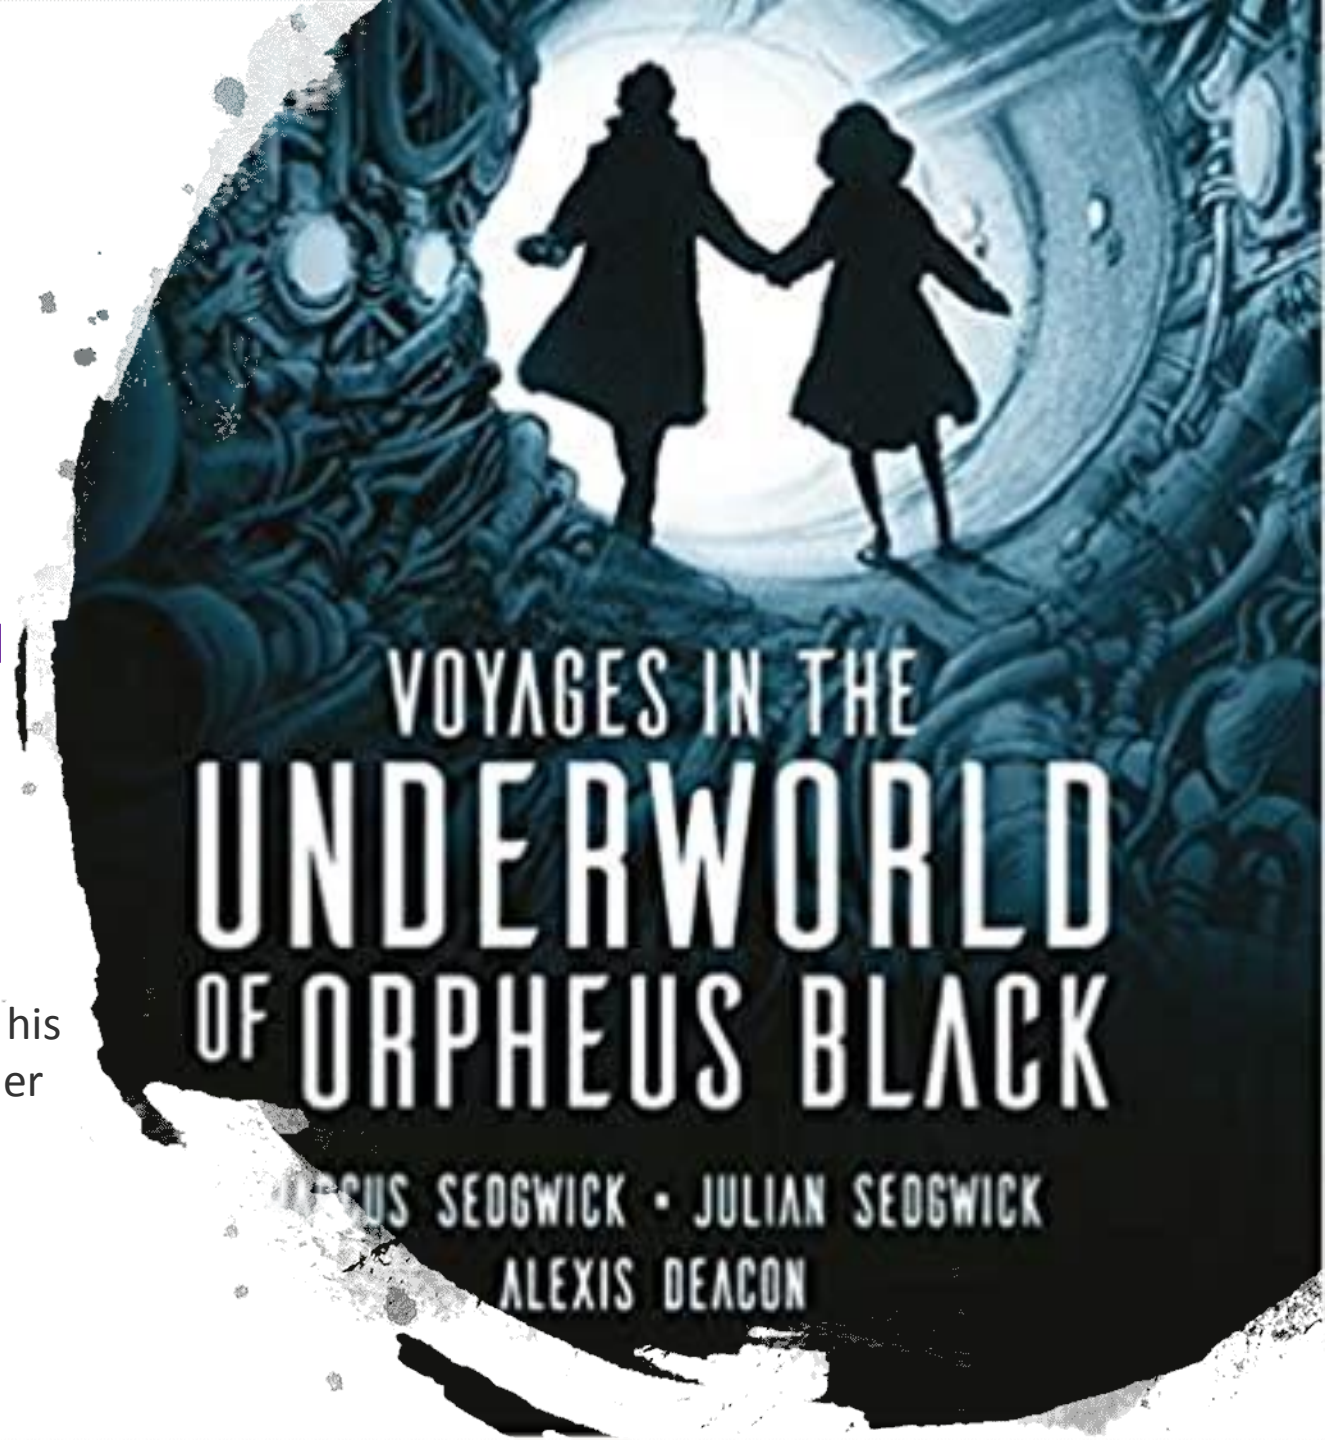

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

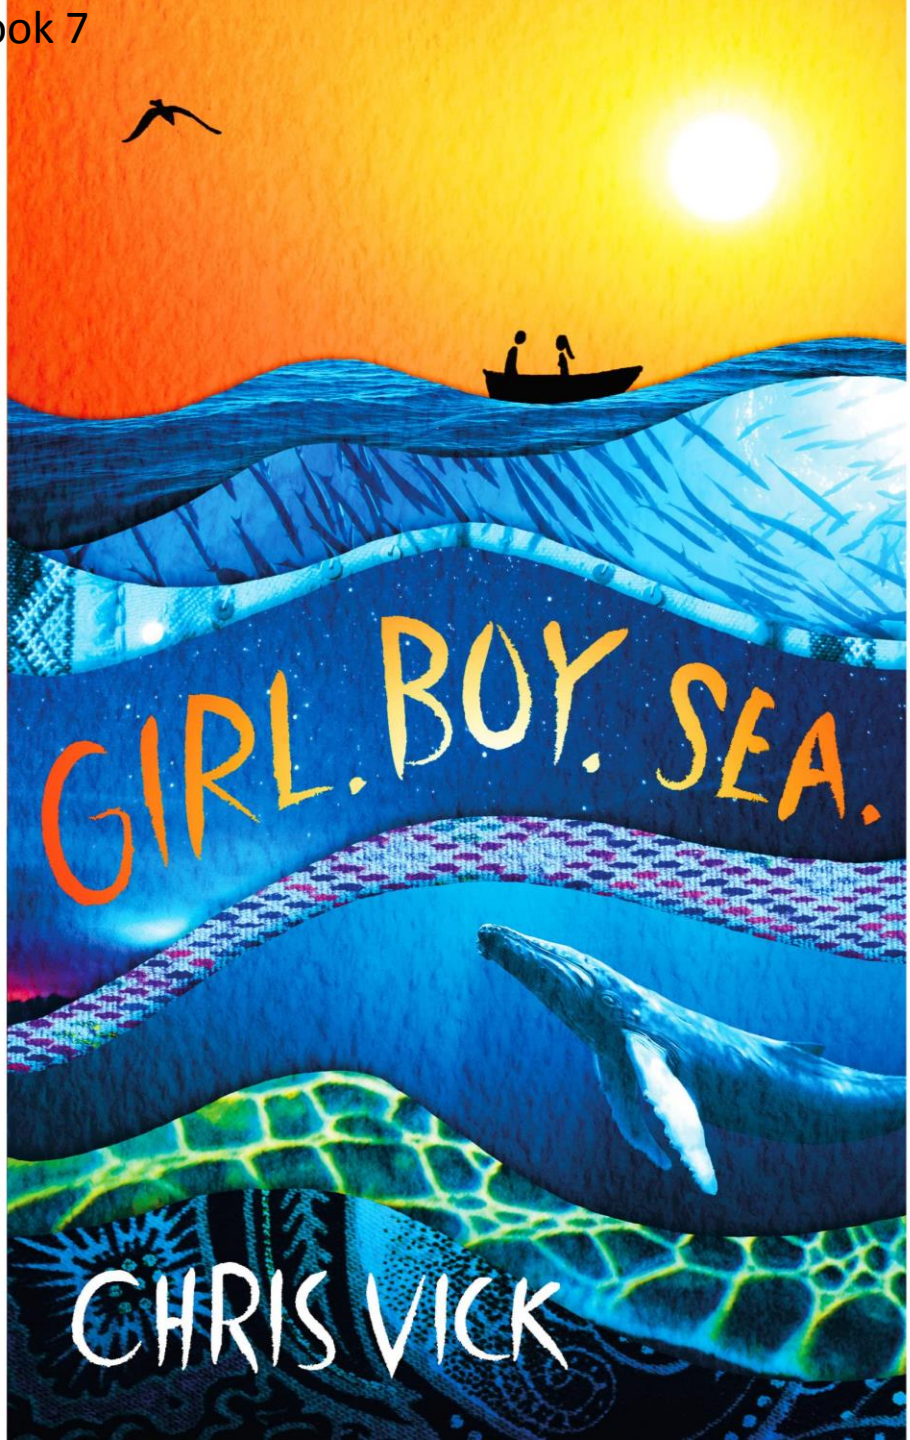

Voyages in the Underworld of Orpheus Black by Marcus Sedgwick, Julian Sedgwick and Alexis Deacon

Harry Black is lost between the world of war and the land of myth in this illustrated novel that transports the tale of Orpheus to World War II-era London.

He is told that his brother has died during a German air raid, his delirium suggests otherwise and he sets out to find his brother hoping that he is still alive...

Graphic novel

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

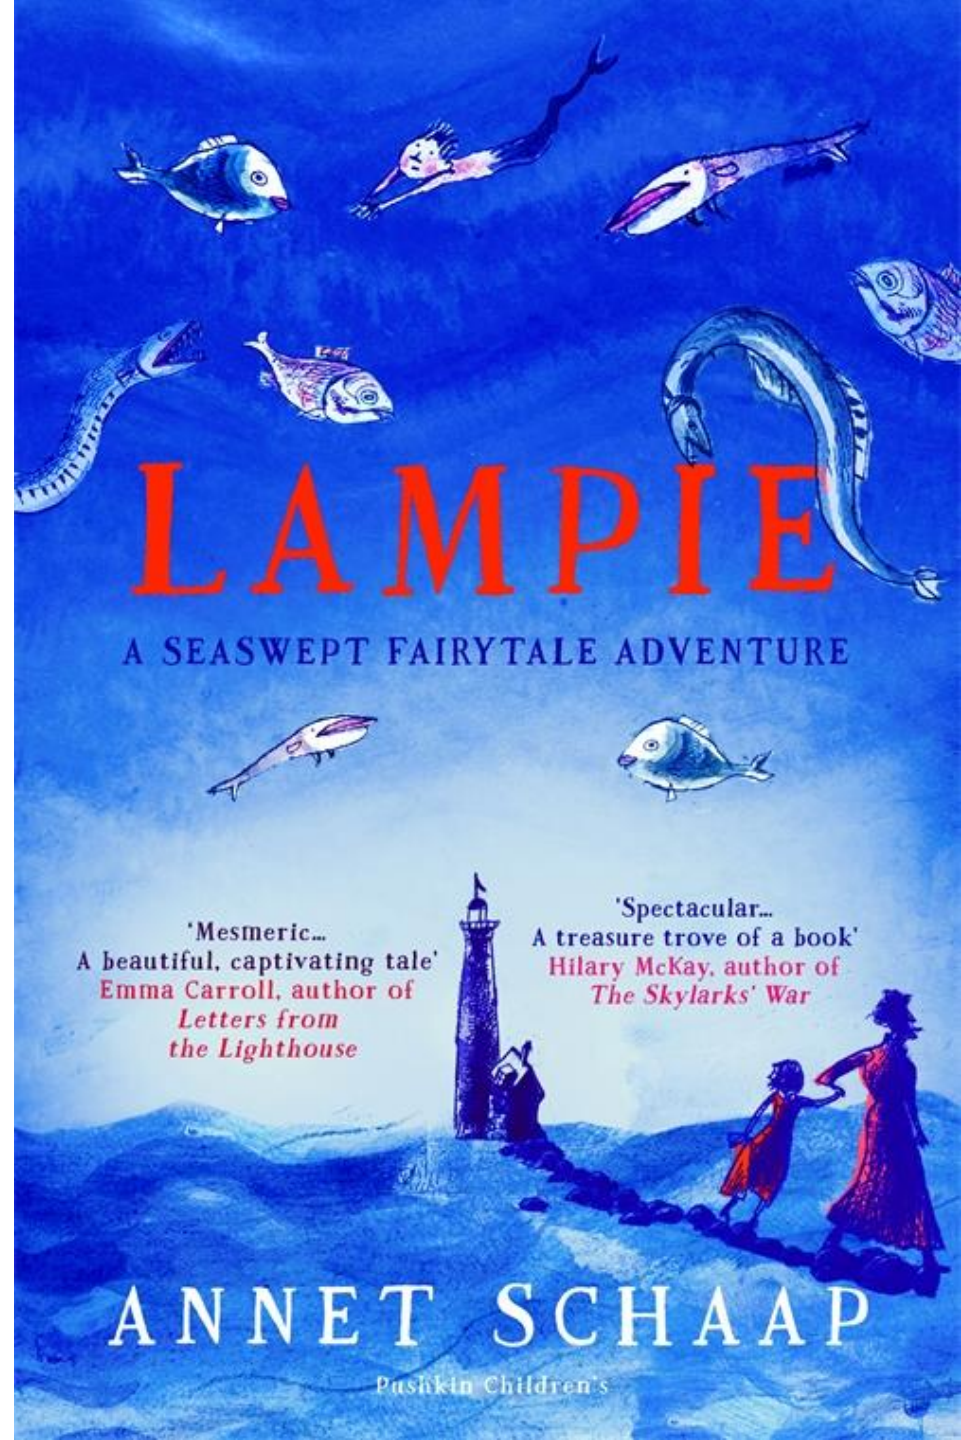

Girl. Boy. Sea. By Chris Vick

A British boy narrowly survives the sinking of his yacht in a huge storm off the coast of Morocco. After days alone at sea in a tiny rowing boat he rescues a girl clinging for her life to a barrel. Through endless days and nights they drift. When they land on a desert island, they are surprised to be confronted by a stranger...

Carnegie Shadowing Shortlist 2020

Lampie: A Seaswept Fairytale Adventure by Annet Schaap

Lampie is the lighthouse keeper's daughter. She lights a lantern, every evening, to warn ships away from the rocks. One stormy night disaster strikes - the lantern goes out; a ship is wrecked, and an adventure begins...

Carnegie Shadowing 2020

The shadowing competition has been extended!

Read as many shortlisted books as you can over the summer and vote for your favourite to win the Shadowers' Choice Award!!

Will you agree with the Judges' choice of winner?

HAPPY SHADOWING!